2.	Limit on voting rights	Limits on voting rights are applicable as per provisions of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949. A proxy may not vote the equity shares except on a poll. Registered holders of equity shares withdrawn from the depository facility under the Deposit Agreement will be entitled to vote and exercise other direct shareholder rights in accordance with applicable Indian law.

The paid up amount is neither secured/covered by a guarantee of the issuer or related entity nor subject to any other arrangement that legally or economically enhances the seniority of the claim.
4.	Claim on residual assets	Entitled to a claim on the residual assets, which is proportional to its share of paid up capital; after all senior claims have been repaid in liquidation (i.e Has an unlimited and variable claim, not a fixed or capped claim).

6.	Distributions	Distributions are paid out of Distributable items (retained earnings included). The level of distributions is not in any way linked to the amount paid up at issuance and is not subject to a contractual cap (except to the extent that a bank is unable to pay distributions that exceed the level of distributable items). There are no circumstances under which the distributions are obligatory. non – payment is therefore, not an event of default. Distributions are paid only after legal and contractual obligations have been met and payments on more senior capital instruments have been made. There are no preferential distributions, including in respect of other elements classified as the highest quality issued capital.
7.	Loss Absorption	It is the paid up capital that takes the first and proportionately greatest share of any losses as they occur. Within the highest quality capital, each instrument absorbs losses on a going concern basis, proportionately and pari- passu with all the other common shares.

9.	Directly issued and paid – up	Share are directly issued and paid up. The Bank cannot directly or indirectly fund the purchase of its own common shares. Banks should also not extend loans against their own shares.
